

OFFICE FESS PROCEDURAL SET FROM KARL STORZ

Bring the OR Experience to Your Office

Experience matters. Your patients trust in your expertise to bring them the best possible outcomes. You and your team have worked to improve and advance the patient experience in both the OR and office settings. By using the same instrumentation you are familiar with in the OR, the same level of control remains in your hands when performing in-office procedures.

Same quality instruments, same quality care.
