Protect your Investment

Have you ever dropped your phone? You were probably glad you had a screen protector and case. Shouldn't you take the same precautions for your life-saving medical devices?

The snug and rugged 8403XDC cover will shield your C-MAC® Pocket Monitor from the sudden jolts, bumps, and drops that are inevitable in the EMT environment. The Pocket Monitor is already designed for use in demanding circumstances; the 8403XDC case gives you an added layer of protection and even greater peace of mind.

- Preserves your investment
- Extends useful service life
- Fits tight, holds right

It is recommended to check the suitability of the product for the intended procedure prior to use.
